1. Special sense of privilege and honor - to bring the greeting & good wishes of the U. to our beloved older sister - almost ^{faculty recognition} no alumni of Concordia Seminary are now members of the U. - evidence of our approval and regard for what has been said and done in those many years - 125 years may not quite meet the adjective "memorable" yet our Alma Mater ^{constancy} continuity & constancy for ^{for} a long time has been a light and a fortification for many of us on both shores. The veil - certainly remembering good works are entirely of order - if theology is faith in words of understanding our fathers and brethren have been obedient to their task and their mission two reasons: 1. must be read in a state of nature than of grace. 2. after reading them the remainder of the day looks so much better - things can't really be that bad - however - sad used to see my picture regularly - my authority degraded on it - now for almost a year - see only the pictures of some of my ~~former~~ colleagues on the wall. That makes me very sad - the theology obviously is better than mine - they are more important. Of course, there are occasionally pictures of synod officers - usually with a but quite ^{unmoving} ~~no movement~~ for them an occupation - hazedmore an indictment of the people who created them. a tribute to them - the new feeling some of the people all the time - a great achievement in the church militant.

 3. 125 year - stories - not too many.
 Sequel - Triglotha - - Fica Lindman.
